Sessions marked with headphones (🎧) are recorded, and Arena sessions are also noted. English and Vietnamese sessions are listed here; Spanish workshops are in the Spanish section.

I-01 I AM OVER FACEBOOK! EXPLORING OTHER SOCIAL MEDIA SITES TO HELP PARISH LEADERS REMAIN RELEVANT

Instead of feeling helpless when it comes to navigating social media, learn to harness new energy and potential to evangelize and communicate with others. Move beyond the standard parish website and Facebook page and familiarize yourself with other social media sites. In this workshop, we'll look at social media strategies to share our faith beyond the pews. Parish leaders can learn tools and tips that can assist them in communication.

I-02 IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF MARY

This session will explore the life of this young Jewish girl whose fiat changed salvation history forever. We will reflect on Mary's life as an unwed mother and wife whose love for her son took her from the cradle to the cross. Mary's unwavering faith in God challenges us to walk in the footsteps of Mary each and every day.

I-03 CATHOLICISM THROUGH A BLACK LENS: 30TH ANNIVERSARY DISCUSSION OF THE DOCUMENT "WHAT WE HAVE SEEN AND HEARD" 🎧

What does it mean to be black and Catholic? Why is this a distinct group from other Catholics? In this session, we will look at the history and gifts of black Catholicism and how to connect them with the wider church by a reflection on "What We Have Seen and Heard," the 1984 pastoral letter on evangelization from the black bishops of the United States.

10:00 - 11:30 AM • FRIDAY, MARCH 13, 2015

Dr. Augustine, who also serves on the board for the National Federation for Catholic Youth Ministry, has presented at various national conferences, and has written for several publications related to ministry.

I-04 TRADING IN OLD WINESKINS: A MISSIONARY APPROACH TO FORMATION 🎧

Do you ever wonder why so many parishes are reporting declining numbers for Mass attendance, school enrollment and religious education? Is it really a by-product of the culture? Ever since Vatican II, and in every Catholic Church document since, we have been asked to model our formation programs so that we don't just "study" Jesus and the Church but develop the whole person to look, think, behave and respond like Jesus Christ. To do so requires a shift in both thinking and approach. By examining our primary task in formation we will rediscover possibilities for substantial growth in our ministry efforts for all ages.

Rich Curran

Rich Curran is founder and Executive Director of the Wisconsin-based Parish Success Group. He formerly served as Director for Youth and Young Adult Ministry for the Diocese of Green Bay, Wis. Curran is a regular presenter at the major national Catholic youth conferences and has been keynote at 30 diocesan conferences, and speaks to 50,000 teenagers and adults each year at parish events, missions and school assemblies.

I-05 WORKING WITH PARENTS AFTER AN INCIDENT OF BULLYING: A KEY ELEMENT OF POSITIVE SCHOOL CLIMATE 🎧

How do we talk with parents after an incident of bullying in ways that promote a positive school climate, communicate our concern, and avoid triggering angry or defensive reactions? How the initial contact is managed can make things worse or make things better. Learn seven specific phrases to avoid using with parents and seven proven techniques to prevent potential parent conflicts, acknowledge and affirm parent concerns, and maintain positive parent relationships.

DiLallo's published work, "Peace Be With You: Christ Centered Bullying Solution," is a grassroots effort that is gaining momentum across the country.

I-06 PROUD TO BE CATHOLIC: AN EVANGELIZATION ESSENTIAL

In this session, we will explore the treasures of the Catholic faith that give us reason to be proud and to be eager to share all that we have been given as gift. Answering “What makes me proud to be Catholic?” can be a primary move for the evangelizer.

Carole M. Eipers, DMin

Dr. Carole Eipers is Vice President, Executive Director of Catechetics for William H. Sadlier, Inc. She served in parish ministries for over 20 years as a teacher, director of religious education, youth minister and pastoral associate. She has made presentations throughout the United States and internationally, and her books include “Catechist 101: Wade Don’t Dive.”

I-07 ARE YOU LIVING A SPIRITUAL LIFE?

This presentation will center on recognizing “the Holy” in our daily lives. What does that mean for you? When do you know you are living a spiritual life? Are you aware of how to deepen your spiritual life at this time? These questions and more will be addressed as Fr. Bob Fabing will use material from his recent poetry publication and his new liturgical music collections to enliven and develop this session on the meaning of a spiritual life.

Fr. Robert Fabing, SJ

Fr. Fabing is author of five books and a composer of 12 CDs of liturgical music with Oregon Catholic Press.

I-08 A CATHOLIC IMAGINATION: IMAGINE THAT!

Albert Einstein once said, “Imagination is more important than knowledge.” Come to this creative and interactive workshop to discover why a religious imagination is more important than religious knowledge! We’ll be using the arts, especially drama, to explore ways of opening up Scripture and liturgical symbols for children. Your imagination will be set on fire as you explore new ways of “seeing” – and you’ll have fun!

Anne Frawley-Mangan

The former elementary school teacher/drama teacher is Creative Director for Litmus Productions in Albany Creek, and lecturer at Holy Spirit Seminary and at Australian Catholic University.

I-09 POWER & AUTHORITY IN A PILGRIM CHURCH

In our modern world, power and authority often have negative associations. People immediately think about the abuses of power that we have seen in our church and in society. In the minds of many, authority is opposed to human freedom. This workshop will offer an alternative vision of the authentic exercise of power and authority in the church grounded in Christ and put in service of God’s Reign.

Dr. Richard Gaillardetz

Dr. Richard Gaillardetz is the Joseph Professor of Catholic Systematic Theology at Boston College. He was Associate Professor of Systematic Theology at the University of St. Thomas Graduate School of Theology in Houston and Professor of Catholic Studies at the University of Toledo. His major books include “Keys to the Council” (co-authored with Catherine Clifford) and “When the Magisterium Intervenes...”

I-10 “WE WANT BETTER CHOICES:” FAMILY AND FAITH-BASED MEDIA IN HOLLYWOOD TODAY

Catholics, especially parents and educators, often say they want better choices of film, television and video for themselves and their families. Hollywood is starting to listen, as shown by some recent films and television programs. In addition, Catholic filmmakers are creating some wonderful but not widely known faith-friendly content. In this multimedia workshop, filmmaker and priest Fr. David Guffey will report on the hopeful but challenging state of family and faith-based media today. He will present concrete ways that people can find media programs and use them to enrich their families, and practical ways for them to encourage the production of quality family films.

Fr. David L. Guffey, CSC

Fr. David Guffey, a priest of the Congregation of Holy Cross, serves as National Director of Family Theater Productions in Hollywood. He formerly served as Director of Novices at the congregation’s novitiate in Cascade, Colo. Currently, Fr. Guffey assists at St. Monica Parish in Santa Monica, Calif. He has presented retreats and workshops on spirituality, culture and faith over the past 20 years to parish, religious, school and diocesan groups in East Africa, Bangladesh, France and the United States.

I-11 PERMISSION TO BE YOU – THE FREEDOM TO SHINE

There will always be some voice telling me that whoever I am today is not enough. The challenge is accepting that every one of us has the capacity for bounteousness. Yes, we want to love other people without holding back. We want to feel authentic. And yet, we listen to inner voices that keep our life small. We live stuck. But what if we are truly the light of the world – as Jesus said – and we are meant to shine? What if, as children of God, there are resources to draw upon – a reservoir of kindness, compassion, hope and resilience? Can we return to the truth of who we really are – to lovingly accept the humanity entrusted to us? Am I willing to be loved for being this me?

Terry Hershey

Rev. Terry Hershey is an inspirational speaker, humorist, author, dad, Protestant minister and landscape designer on Vashon Island in the Puget Sound near Seattle. He is a nationally and internationally renowned speaker and retreat facilitator. Hershey is a regular contributor to The Hallmark Channel's "New Morning" show, and regularly speaks throughout the United States and Canada.

I-12 SEEING JESUS: THE MASTER CATECHIST

There is no better Master Catechist than Jesus himself. In this “conversational style” workshop, we will draw out of the Gospels 12 lessons on being a catechist based on Jesus’ own teaching methods. When we truly see how Jesus lived and worked, there is really a lot we can learn! These are practical lessons that apply to catechists working at every age and stage of faith formation.

Bill Huebsch

Bill Huebsch is Director of PastoralPlanning.com, the online pastoral center at Twenty-third Publications. He worked as a diocesan administrator for many years in Minnesota, principally in the Diocese of New Ulm, where he served with Bishop Ray Lucker. Huebsch has taught at the university, diocesan, conference and parish levels for nearly 40 years and has many published works, including “Praying the Stations with Pope Francis,” and his most recent work, “Jesus: The Master Catechist.”

I-13 THE FOUR QUESTIONS

There are four questions that we are each constantly grappling with: Who am I? Why am I here? What matters most? What matters least? The world has a great deal to say about each of these questions, and often drags us further and further away from God’s answers to these questions. The clarity that comes from answering these questions in an authentic way leads to the joy Jesus invites us to through the Gospels, and a life that is devoid of the complexity and contradictions that the world is constantly trying to drag us into. In this presentation, Matthew Kelly will explore how we can seek meaningful answers to these questions and help others to do the same.

Matthew Kelly

Born in Sydney, Australia, Matthew Kelly began speaking and writing in his late teens, while attending business school. Today, he is an internationally acclaimed speaker, author and business consultant. His books have been published in more than 25 languages, have sold more than 10 million copies and have appeared on the New York Times, Wall Street Journal and USA Today best-seller lists. Kelly is founder and President of The Dynamic Catholic Institute, based in Cincinnati, where he lives.

I-14 WHAT ARE WE DOING ON EARTH FOR CHRIST’S SAKE?

For baptized people, everything we do is done for the sake of Christ. But we are now on mission to a sometimes hostile world, where Christian faith is aggressively resisted. How do we answer our critics? What challenges are they offering us to which we should listen carefully? How do we enable our students and faith communities to hold onto belief in an increasingly unbelieving world?

Rev. Richard Leonard, SJ

Jesuit priest Fr. Richard Leonard is Director of the Catholic Office for Film & Broadcasting, based in Melbourne, Australia. He is a Visiting Professor at the Gregorian University in Rome and has been a Visiting Scholar at the University of California, Los Angeles. Fr. Leonard is a popular speaker at the RECongress. He is author of eight books, including “What Are We Doing on Earth for Christ’s Sake?” and “Where the Hell is God?”

I-15 WHAT EVERY SERIOUS CHRISTIAN SHOULD KNOW ABOUT JUDAISM

Did you know that Judaism is much more than the religion of the Hebrew Bible? Did you know that Jews have sacred literature beyond the Hebrew Bible (that we have our own “New Testament”)? Did you know that Jews mean something completely different than Christians when we speak of the Messiah, sin, redemption, salvation, repentance and forgiveness? Come and question, learn and explore with Rabbi Michael Lotker, author of “A Christian’s Guide to Judaism.”

Rabbi Michael Lotker

Rabbi Michael Lotker spent the bulk of his “first career” in the alternative energy business, working in wind power, solar and geothermal energy. In 2003, he was ordained a rabbi and is now Community Rabbi for the Jewish Federation of Ventura County, Calif., and was recently invited to be a Guest Chaplain at the U.S. House of Representatives.

I-16 SEE YOUR WAY CLEAR

“See, the former things have come to pass, and new things I now declare: before they spring forth, I tell you of them” (Isaiah 42:9). See! How well do we see – with eyes of hope, the eyes of the Word of the Lord present among us, the eyes of the community, the eyes of the prophets and the holy ones among us? Come, open your eyes and see what God is doing, and what God expects us to do as we turn again and walk with our God and one another to Resurrection.

He also serves as Campus Minister at Columbia University in New York City. Fr. Morris is author of "The Way of Serenity," "The Promise" and "God Wants You Happy," and is regularly called upon by the national media to offer ethical and moral commentary on the news.

I-18 THE CATECHIST'S BACKPACK: SPIRITUAL NECESSITIES FOR THE CATECHIST'S JOURNEY 🗣️

Backpacking is a fun, healthy and physically challenging way to enjoy a journey of discovery. Of course, anyone setting forth on a backpacking journey knows that there are many things to take into consideration and certain necessities that need to be packed. In a similar way, catechists are engaged in a stimulating and challenging faith journey of discovery – a journey that requires certain spiritual resources that enable them to not only endure the journey but to thrive on it. In this workshop, Joe Paprocki will explore six spiritual necessities for catechists. You can't give what you don't have.

Joe Paprocki, DMin

Joe Paprocki, National Consultant for Faith Formation at Loyola Press in Chicago, has over 30 years of experience in pastoral ministry. He has served as a consultant for catechist formation for the Chicago Archdiocese and as a parish pastoral associate and director of religious education. I-19 THE "REAL" HUNGER GAMES

Based on his popular book, "Epic Food Fight: A Bite-sized History of Salvation," Fr. Leo Patalinghug will discuss ramifications of desires and appetite as it applies to the decisions that lead to sinfulness and sanctity. This topic touches on ecclesial salvation history, bite-sizing deep moral and sacramental theology, while incarnating a dynamic Catholic orthodoxy in the modern world.

I-20 AVOIDING "SNAPCHAT" RELATIONSHIPS IN MINISTRY: GOING BEYOND FACEBOOK AND TWITTER 🗣️

I-21 OLD WINE, NEW SKINS: TEACHING AN EVER ANCIENT FAITH TO AN EVER NEW GENERATION 🗣️

The faith we profess is not cool and is not modern. The faith we profess is not outwardly appealing to a generation that communicates through filtered photos, hashtags and seven-second Snapchats. How do we take a faith that is "ever ancient" and show the teens of today that it is also "ever new" and entirely relevant for their daily life? What must we do to explain 2,000-year-old doctrines to a generation that has seen technology change and improve every day of their lives? How do we take old wine and place it into new skins? Join us as we explore new ways to share the beauty of our Church and the depth of our theology with a generation hungry to discover it.

I-22 SEEING WHAT LIES MOST DEEPLY WITHIN US: DEVELOPING MYSTICAL EYES 🎧 ARENA

God's presence inside us and our world is rarely dramatic and overwhelming. Rather, God's presence is something that lies quiet, seemingly helpless, almost unfelt, largely unnoticed and easily ignored. But it has within it a gentle, unremitting imperative, a compulsion toward something higher that invites us to draw upon it. And, if we do, it gushes into an infinite stream that instructs us, nurtures us and fills us with godly energy. How can we train ourselves to see this presence?

I-23 THE POLITICAL BONES: A MEXICAN READING OF EZEKIEL 37? 🎧

In honor of my many Mexican and Mexican-American students, I decided to do some reflection on potential Mexican themes of Dia de los Muertos (Day of the Dead) in relation to Ezekiel's famous vision of the Valley of Dry Bones in chapter 37. It was a wonderful intellectual journey. The real joy of my reading was "discovering" (for me, anyway!) the early 20th-century Mexican artist Jose Guadalupe Posada. This session is a report of my findings on how Posada's political art helps us think about Ezekiel's magnificent vision!

I-27 DON'T ROB GOD: HOW TO INCREASE GIVING WHILE MAKING DISCIPLES

It takes money to do ministry in a parish. Without money we can't turn on the lights, heat the building or pay staff. I-28 FREEDOM, COMMUNITY, SOBRIETY: THE GIFTS OF THE 12 STEPS ☺

There is much more to not drinking and using than just not drinking and using. In recovery, the isolation, desperation and the heartbreak of alcoholism/addiction is transformed into a spiritual way of living. In Gratitude for Recovery, we form grassroots communities of men and women who share experience, strength and hope. With the footwork of doing the 12 Steps, we make amends for past chaos and selfishness, and open the door to a better way of living for individuals and for families.

I-70 Tân Phúc Âm Hoá Trong Thời Đại Tục Hoá ☺

"Không ai đổ rượu mới vào bầu da cũ" (Lk 5:37). Các lãnh đạo tôn giáo quan tâm đến văn hoá đức tin đang bị thay thế nhanh chóng bằng chủ nghĩa thế tục hoá. NEW EVANGELIZATION IN A SECULAR AGE ☺

"No one puts new wine into old wineskins" (Lk 5:37). Religious leaders are concerned that the culture of faith has rapidly been replaced by the culture of secularism. Our recent popes John Paul II, Benedict XVI and Francis remind the Church of the urgency of rediscovering the "Joy of the Gospel" and its power, and challenge Christian believers to carry out the task of a New Evangelization more effectively in our secular world.

2-22 LIMITLESS: THE JUNIOR HIGHER 🗣️

Early adolescence is a time of change, challenge and potential. Especially in this selfie-Instagram-Snapchat day and age. Energy to burn. Continual partial attention. High-tech toys and gadgets. How do we embrace and minister to this most unique creation of God? The possibilities are “limit-less.”

2-23 SEE THE POSSIBILITIES! FORMING DISCIPLES 🗣️

Adolescent catechesis is more than educating youth in the faith. It is about forming disciples and transforming lives! This workshop will explore how we can explode youth faith formation out of its old boundaries and create impacting moments for youth to connect, deepen, engage and change their world! Let’s see the possibilities and create a new story for adolescent catechesis that is relational, creative, experiential and, at times, even messy!

2-24 RESURRECTION FAITH 🗣️

Jesus rose from the dead, but what happened to his body? What will happen to our bodies when we are raised from the dead? Such questions have puzzled theologians for centuries and continue to be raised today. But a resurrection faith is more than a dogma about resuscitated bodies. In this session, we will examine a modern approach to resurrection faith, giving new life and hope to Christian disciples.

2-25 RESTLESS HEARTS: WRITING THE SPIRITUAL JOURNEY 🗣️

“You have made us for yourself, and our heart is restless until it rests in you”: St. Augustine described his own spiritual journey as a “restless heart,” never satisfied, always seeking God. Reading the autobiographies of those who have pursued the Lord – for example, Ignatius of Loyola, Teresa of Avila, Dorothy Day and C.S. Lewis – sheds light on our own spiritual journey. We look for the moment of “crisis,” literally, the turning point in their lives that made all the difference. (This workshop is based upon his undergraduate course at Fordham University.)

2-26 THE GOOD, BAD AND THE UGLY: UNDERSTANDING THE SEXUAL TRENDS OF STUDENTS AND HOW TO REACH THEM

Raised by baby boomers, today's generation is breaking new ground in their understanding of sexuality, their boundaries (or lack thereof), and their development of a whole new language around sexual choices. Understanding the trends, thinking, influences and language that surround this generation is imperative if we are going to speak truth amid the cacophony of noise that daily invades their minds.

She speaks full time across the country as well as in Mexico, Australia, Ireland, South Africa and Canada.

2-27 SEEING HIM

Pope Francis tells us that people prefer to listen to witnesses: They "call for evangelizers to speak of a God whom they themselves know, as if they were seeing him." As a young teacher I discovered quickly that I could not be a witness to something I hadn't seen. As one student asked me, "Sir, do you believe this?" In that moment the student didn't want a teacher, he was looking for a witness. In this session, we will explore what it means to "see him" and how our testimony can give vitality and effervescence to our ministry.

3-01 SING TO THE LORD! MUSIC AND PRAYER IN TEACHING THE FAITH 🎧

Music is a powerful tool of communication: It says things that words alone cannot. Whether looking for creative teaching ideas or powerful prayer experiences – knowing how to competently and creatively use music is one of the most important things we can do in ministry. This workshop is filled with great ideas for both the use of music in teaching and the leading of music in praying with young people.

3-02 A PROPHET FOR ALL SEASONS: THE BIOGRAPHY OF ISAIAH 🎧

As prophets go, Isaiah is a phenomenon. His book has been called the fifth Gospel, and we hear it proclaimed in the Sunday assembly more often than anything else in the Old Testament. The premiere prophet of Advent – “For unto us a child is born!” – is also the final prophet of Holy Week – “He was pierced for our offenses, and by his wounds we are healed.” Isaiah’s words are familiar, so how come many of us don’t know anything about this guy? Who is this long-dead prophet of Israel who speaks so intimately to Christian hearts?

3-03 ST. IGNATIUS’ RULES FOR DISCERNMENT OF SPIRITS IN LIGHT OF THE DEVOTION TO THE SACRED HEART 🎧

We will be exploring ways to defeat the temptations of The Enemy of Our Human Nature and keep our hearts open to the love the Father has for us so that we can offer that love to the world. The challenge is to do this even if it means our hearts get pierced along the way. Gain some practical tips important for staying fresh in our own teaching and ministry and which are easily passed along to those we serve as well.

3-04 DISCIPLE-BUILDING YOUTH MINISTRY 🎧

We are being called to form youth as missionary disciples. Parishes throughout the country have found key practices and are providing youth ministry in new ways that help young people live their faith actively as young adults and adults. These communities built a strong foundation for effective youth ministry through vision, collaboration, faith witness, connections with families and active involvement of youth. This workshop will explore the essential strategies and practices of parishes that are developing young disciples who thrive and building youth ministry that grows.

3-07 CATHOLIC ETHICS CONCERNING ACCEPTANCE OF GAY AND LESBIAN PERSONS 🗨️

The Gospels challenge us to welcome all into our church communities, but should there be a limit to acceptance? This session will draw from Sacred Scripture, Church teachings and scientific research in considering how we are called to love our gay and lesbian brothers and sisters. Through addressing difficult questions – such as whether acceptance of the person implies condoning one’s actions – this workshop will move beyond merely presenting Church teaching toward helping us make sense of it in our hearts.

3-08 THE SLAVE ACROSS THE STREET: HUMAN TRAFFICKING OF AMERICAN TEENS 🗨️

Human trafficking is the second largest crime in the United States. Survivor, author and activist Theresa Flores will discuss how this is happening right under our noses and what is being done to combat this silent epidemic. Learn what modern-day slavery, prostitution and pornography have in common and why this has become “normal” today. Flores will also share her personal story of being a Catholic teenager from a good family and yet was trafficked for two years without anyone’s knowledge. She is proof that human dignity can rise above any circumstance and impact the world, both by changing people’s hearts and minds, and by altering the laws of the land.

Theresa L. Flores, LSW, MS

Theresa Flores is a human trafficking survivor, victim’s advocate, best-selling author and founder of SOAP (Save Our Adolescents from Prostitution). 3-10 YOU HAVE PUT ON CHRIST: CULTIVATING A BAPTISMAL SPIRITUALITY 🗨️

This workshop will focus on the beginning – the moment of our baptism into Christ Jesus. Too often we settle into a kind of ritual stupor and forget the power that claimed us when we were baptized. What does it mean to have been baptized into Christ? Discover ways to cultivate a baptismal spirituality in the parish so that the parish, our relationships, our Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults and catechetical ministries and our ways of thinking and acting can be transformed again and again!

Dr. Jerry Galipeau

3-11 NO EXEMPTIONS: SERVANT LEADERSHIP

Church ministry can be a rewarding experience. To follow Christ Jesus by serving one another is a gift. The sharing of our knowledge and experience with others is a call from God. However, we must be ever mindful that this great gift may lie next to a great weakness. (The desire to lead others to Christ may sit next to a desire to wield over others.) We must remember that the call to discipleship is a call to service. There are no exemptions from being a “servant of God.” This workshop is an exploration of the meaning and purpose of ministry, service and leadership in the Church. It offers specific insights for ministry formation and development.

3-12 FEEDING THE HUNGERS: THE HOPES FOR YOUTH CATECHESIS AND THEOLOGY

Teaching theology in Catholic high schools and adolescent catechesis in parishes presents unique challenges in our postmodern world, but also great opportunities. The key to effective education-in-faith with this age group is to actively engage the deep hungers and thirsts of their lives, responding out of the surplus of good food (Matt. 14:20) and the fresh waters (John 4:10) of Catholic Christian faith.

Dr. Thomas Groome

Dr. Tom Groome is Professor of Theology and Religious Education at Boston College, where he is also Chair of the Department of Religious Education and Pastoral Ministry. The award-winning author has written or edited 10 books and numerous articles and essays. 3-13 WE DON’T SING AT THE LITURGY – WE SING THE LITURGY!

Imagine your favorite movie musical – but with no music! The same is true for any liturgical celebration, especially the Eucharist. Music is integral to liturgy, intrinsic to the ritual action and critical to free the gathered assembly to pray and celebrate. We need to clarify the theology and intent of the various ritual units of the Mass, and discover where music can help to amplify and lift up these moments of prayer and praise. Come ready to sing and learn, identify important resources for catechesis, and prepare a strategy for how music will not be “inspiring entertainment,” but a platform for believers to express their faith and deepen their “being sent” on mission.

David Haas

David Haas is a member of the Campus Ministry team at Cretin-Derham Hall High School in St. Paul, Minn., where he is also founder and Executive Director of “Music and Ministry Alive!” – an international liturgical music formation program for high school and college age youth. He has composed over 50 original collections and recordings of liturgical music with GIA Publications, and has authored over 20 books.

3-14 BEHOLD-ING THE MYSTERY: HELPING YOUNG CATHOLICS APPRECIATE THE MASS

We have all experienced the yawns, the rolling of eyes and the whining of souls when it comes to holy Mass ... and that’s often just from the adults. So how do we pass along the mysterious beauty of the liturgy to the young church? How do we guide young souls into a deeper comprehension of God’s timeless Love flowing out of the sanctuary? Mark Hart will offer timely insights into the problem, and propose some practical solutions to help the Mass come to life in young lives.

Mark Hart

Mark Hart, based in Arizona, serves as Executive Vice President for Life Teen International. He is a best-selling and award-winning author and co-author of over a dozen books, including his latest, “Behold the Mystery,” and has created the popular young adult Scripture study, “T3.” Hart has traveled the globe speaking to millions and is a regular guest on several Catholic radio programs, including a weekly spot on SiriusXM radio.

3-15 “HEY, I KNOW! LET’S HAVE A WOMEN’S RETREAT!” (AND OTHER CRAZY THINGS WE SAY) WITHOUT LOSING YOUR MIND OR YOUR STAFF

So, you want to have a women’s ministry in the parish? But since the women are exhausted, spread too thin, working so hard at other matters in the parish and in life, it seems daunting, right? In this workshop, come pray, sing, learn and discuss what works effectively for women’s ministry on the parish and diocesan level. Sarah Hart has been deeply involved in women’s ministry as an itinerant minister for over 15 years. She’ll share stories with humor and honesty of her experiences in this vital area of adult catechesis. Be prepared for fun, song, prayer and possible spontaneous line dancing.

The Grammy-nominated songwriter’s pieces can be found in many hymnals and have been recorded by numerous artists. She has written several retreats for parish, women’s and adult catechesis, which she herself presents.

3-16 A NEW WAY TO BE CHURCH: RETHINKING PARISH LIFE FROM THE OUTSIDE IN

In his 2013 Apostolic Exhortation, Evangelii Gaudium (“The Joy of the Gospel”), Pope Francis encourages a renewal of the parish so that it is “completely mission-oriented.” What if parish was defined by the needs of the world? What if sacraments were refined by a vision of justice? What if the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults and all formation was dedicated to the formation of great hearted people? What if Catholic schools and colleges were distinctive by the commitment of their students? This workshop will speak to a radically new vision for parish life and specific strategies about how to alter the parish orientation from self-focus to the Reign of God.

Jack J. Jezreel

3-17 ETERNAL IS HIS LOVE

His writing has appeared in numerous national and international publications and his work and ideas have been featured in The New York Times and The Washington Post, among others.

3-19 VIRTUES FOR ADULT CHRISTIANS

Pope Francis has said that Christian morality cannot be reduced to a simple collection of moral rules. For there is another traditional approach to ethical living and conscience formation: the life of virtue. This workshop explores the approach of virtue ethics, considers the traditional moral virtues, and then investigates the contemporary virtues needed by adult moral believers facing today’s ethical challenges.

Rev. Bryan N. Massingale, STD

Fr. Bryan Massingale, a priest of the Archdiocese of Milwaukee, is Professor of Moral Theology at Marquette University. 3-20 CREATE A FAMILY CULTURE OF SPIRITUALITY

Long after material inheritance evaporates, spiritual heirlooms continue to nurture the soul and shape the character of children throughout their lifetime. Parents who create a culture of Christian spirituality within their home provide lifelong spiritual treasure. This presentation will suggest “starter ideas” for cultivating a family spirituality that is flavored by the seasons in the liturgical year with an emphasis on Eucharistic devotion.

3-21 “IT IS WHAT IT IS”: UNDERSTANDING, REACHING AND DISCIPLING APATHETIC, DISENGAGED AND RESISTANT YOUTH & YOUNG ADULTS

Have you ever had a class, group or young person you secretly dreaded working with? Do you ever feel like you’re wasting your time, because you’re not getting through to teens? What if you could actually look forward to working with the toughest, most apathetic youth? You’ll discover the real reasons young people hit the snooze button in church, how to recognize different levels of human resistance and acquire a new set of tools you can begin using immediately to effectively reach youth and once again – or perhaps for the first time – enjoy working with hard to reach youth.

3-22 BEREAVEMENT MINISTRY TO YOUNG ADULTS

Bereavement ministry usually is extended to the most immediate survivor, but what about the bond between a young adult (those in their 20s and 30s) and a grandparent? Plus, many young adults are away from active participation. What is it like for them to attend a funeral? Can it be a moment of evangelization? Would a young adult grief support group ever work? Come to discuss issues and practices that offer a warm embrace.

3-23 ANSWERING THE MOST FREQUENT GENERAL QUESTIONS ABOUT THE DEATH PENALTY

Dale and Susan Recinella will begin by sharing their answers to the general questions most frequently directed to them about the death penalty and death row/execution ministry: “The two of you have spent many ‘execution weeks’ with the condemned and their families. What’s that like?” “You also minister in solitary confinement. How is death row similar and different from solitary confinement?” “Together, you’ve tried to raise awareness about criminalization of the mentally ill. What’s going on with that issue?” A significant portion of the time will be spent answering audience questions from the floor.

3-25 THINK OUTSIDE OF THE PEW

It’s great when our young people are involved in the life of our church and ministries. Their spirit and energy are examples of the living Gospel. But what can we do to reach out to those who do not know the relevance of our faith? How can we respond effectively to their needs? This workshop will help you expand your ministry and

3-26 HAPPINESS, SUFFERING AND THE LOVE OF GOD 🎧

Three critical questions stand at the heart of our young people's faith decision: What will truly make me happy? Why would an all-loving God allow suffering? How can I transform suffering into happiness? Religious educators will recognize that these questions can severely inhibit faith – or help us grow in faith – depending on our perspective. Fr. Robert Spitzer will speak about some tested ways of dealing with these questions so that they will lead not to darkness but the light of Christ. He will also discuss his new trilogy: Happiness, Suffering and the Love of God.
