February 2006

Dear Friends in Christ,

It is my pleasure to welcome you to the Diocese of Orange, as we gather for the 2006 Los Angeles Religious Education Congress. Every year it astounds and gratifies me to see all of you faithfully participating in this annual event. It is such a rich venue of resources, creativity, and witness to your dedication to the mission of the Church.

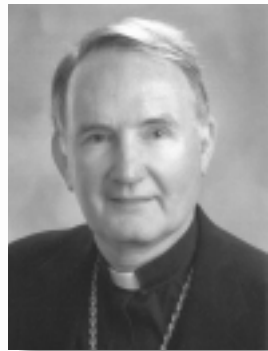

This event provides a rich foundation of inspiration and encouragement to all who attend. So it is my hope that you take advantage of the many workshops, liturgies and opportunities to greet and share with each other this weekend.

Your commitment to the demanding work of ministry is exceptional and I personally commend you for the standard of excellence you provide as educators in the faith formation. I ask the Lord to continue to bless you and your communities as you carry on these important ministries in our Church.

Fraternally yours in Christ Our Savior,

Most Reverend Tod D. Brown
Bishop of Orange

Dear Congress Participant:

I am delighted to welcome you to our annual Religious Education Congress. A wonderful source of renewal for our local Church and beyond, this much anticipated event provides us an opportunity to renew our commitment to be evangelizers and to pass on the rich story and traditions of our Catholic faith.

The theme “Step into Freedom” is inspired by the Scripture readings for the Fifth Sunday of Lent. It is the gift that Jesus bestowed on Lazarus as he called him forth, unbound him and enabled him to embrace new life. Through the gift of this same Spirit, Jesus calls us forth, breaks the bonds of sinfulness, and invites us to let go of all that enslaves.

I am pleased that so many of you take the time to be enriched and renewed by the many excellent keynotes, workshops, multicultural liturgical celebrations, resources and opportunities to network offered throughout the weekend. Your leadership is vital for the well being and growth of our parish faith communities.

Please be assured of my support and encouragement as you so generously dedicate your time and energy to share the Good News of the Gospel and as you challenge our young people to hear and follow the voice of God.

Asking the Lord’s blessing upon you, your families and your most important Catechetical Ministry, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

His Eminence
Cardinal Roger Mahony
Archbishop of Los Angeles

Dear Friends,

It is a joy to welcome you to yet another celebration of faith and renewal planned for Congress 2006. We are always delighted to welcome back those of you who have shared in the gifts of Congress for several years and to extend a warm welcome to first-time attendees. We are truly enriched by the presence and participation of all who gather for this blessed weekend.

As many of you will recall, a Religious Education Endowment Fund has been established in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles for the on-going education and formation of Directors of Religious Education, Adult Religious Educators, Young Adults and Youth Ministers. The fund is currently enabling 18 students to pursue a master's degree in Religious Education. Your gift offering at the 2005 Congress Saturday night liturgies brought in $36,000. We also thank those who made a special contribution to the fund with their online registration.

The number and variety of insightful and challenging keynotes, workshops and resources offered throughout the weekend provide invaluable support of on-going faith formation and enrichment.

The wonderful liturgical celebrations and entertainment weave many sounds, rituals and languages of the cultures and communities of the Archdiocese and beyond. In the midst of the activities offered, there are also moments for reflective prayer, opportunities to walk the labyrinth, and to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

Again, I am most grateful for your participation, leadership and commitment to proclaiming the power of God's liberating presence in the world. I look forward to greeting you at this great annual gathering.

Sincerely,

Sr. Edith Prendergast, RSC

DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME

Sunday, 1:00 a.m.

Most of the United States uses Daylight Saving Time (DST) to “save” daylight hours. At 1 a.m. on April 2, clocks will be set forward one hour, marking the beginning of daylight saving time, effectively moving an hour of daylight from the morning to the evening.

Starting in 2007, it will begin the second Sunday in March to the first Sunday in November, adding about a month to daylight saving time. This year it falls on the fourth Sunday of Lent, right in the middle of our Congress. So set your clocks forward 1 hour at bedtime on Saturday night.

ART EXHIBIT

Arena Lobby – Throughout Congress

THE SAINT JOHN'S BIBLE

Our Congress 2006 Art Exhibit features the Saint John's Bible project – the first handwritten and illuminated Bible since the early 1500s. This project of 1,150 or so calfskin pages (16 by 24 inches) was commissioned in 1998 by St. John's University in Collegeville, Minn. A team of 14 calligraphers and artists is creating this Bible highlighted by illustrations and illuminations and under the artistic direction of Donald Jackson. Jackson is former longtime scribe to Queen Elizabeth's Crown Office at the House of Lords in London.

The page at left is Psalm 107, taken from the “Book of Psalms.” This page is from the third completed volume (of seven volumes total) for The Saint John's Bible.

Prayer Services

The very earliest Christians gathered daily at dawn and again at dusk to sing psalms and hymns and to listen to the Sacred Scriptures. We continue this ancient Church tradition of the Liturgy of the Hours, celebrating the Light that shines through the night's darkness. Through meditation and chant, Taizé prayer will lead us into the quiet. Compline (complements) is our prayer at the end of the day.

BISHOP STEPHANUS TRI BUU THIEN

Con Người Được Thiên Chúa Dựng Nên Là Một Hữu Thể Tự Do

Thiên Chúa dựng nên con người để họ được sống tự do, chứ không muốn cho họ trở thành nô lệ: nô lệ tội lỗi, nô lệ lệ luật, nô lệ những ham muốn bất chính...Tuy nhiên, là một con người có hồn và xác, những hành vi tự do của con người bị hạn chế rất nhiều do những ảnh hưởng bên trong và bên ngoài, khiến con người không còn tự do hành động theo như mình mong muốn. Lời Chúa, luật Chúa, và những giáo huấn của Hội Thánh như là những phương thế, những bảng chỉ đường, là những trợ lực cần thiết giúp cho con người hiểu, sống và hành động đúng với phẩm giá, tư cách của một con người tự do thật sự.

ATTENDEE INFORMATION

NAME TAGS/TICKETS

Congress Name Tags are required to be worn at all times during scheduled events. Tickets are necessary for admittance into general and workshops sessions.

TICKET EXCHANGE

You may exchange tickets for any open workshops during the same period beginning at noon on the Friday of Congress at the Registration Booth's Exchange window, located in the Prefunction area. Note: Any ticket can be used for sessions of the same time in the Arena or Hall B.

SAVING SEATS

It is permissible to save seats up to 10 minutes before a scheduled function begins. After that time, we ask that, in Christian love, you release these seats for others. If any Congress volunteer requests that you release seats that you are saving, please comply with the direction given.

SMOKING

Smoking is not allowed in the Convention Center. There are several outdoor courtyards where it is permitted.

WORKSHOPS

All workshops are ticketed and no one will be admitted to any session without the proper ticket. Any valid ticket will serve as admission to Arena workshops, but these sessions are not open to those without tickets.

Our speakers are generously sharing their time and talents with us. As a special courtesy to them, we ask that you please arrive at the workshop location prior to the scheduled start time. We remind you to please quiet your pager and turn off cell phones.

All sessions will begin on time, and many speakers have asked that no one be admitted after the session has begun. Also, we ask you to avoid, as much as possible, leaving workshops during a presentation. Most of the workshops will have a "natural" break time when it would be less disruptive to the speaker and to the other participants.

EMERGENCIES

In case of emergency, please contact any Congress Committee member wearing a red, white, blue striped ribbon labeled "Official." They are in radio contact with Congress Headquarters and can summon help quickly. For life-threatening situations, please call 9-1-1 from any phone.

Estimados Participantes del Congreso:

Es una gran alegría para mí darles la bienvenida a nuestro Congreso de Educación Religiosa. Este tan anticipado evento es siempre un maravilloso recurso para renovar nuestra Iglesia y aún más allá. Esta es una oportunidad para nosotros para renovar nuestro compromiso de ser evangelizadores y continuar pasando la rica historia de nuestras bellas tradiciones y nuestra Fe católica.

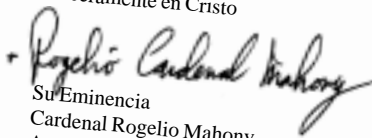

El tema "Paso a la Libertad" es inspirado por las lecturas del domingo de la quinta semana de cuaresma. Es el regalo que Jesús entregó a Lázaro al llamarlo, quitando las limitaciones y habilitándolo para abrazar una nueva vida. A través del regalo de este mismo espíritu, Jesús nos llama a la vida, rompe las barreras del pecado y nos invita a apartarnos de todo lo que nos esclaviza.

Me alienta saber que muchos de ustedes serán enriquecidos y renovados por los excelentes temas, los talleres, las Celebraciones Litúrgicas Multiculturales, los recursos y oportunidades que el equipo ofrecerá a lo largo del fin de semana. Su liderazgo es vital para el buen desarrollo de nuestras parroquias y comunidades de fe.

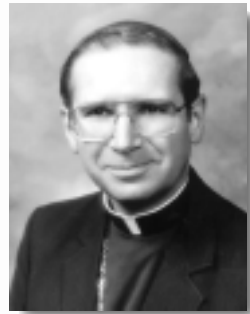

Estén seguros de mi apoyo continuo por su generosa dedicación de su tiempo y energía al compartir la buena nueva del evangelio, y al retar a nuestros jóvenes a escuchar y seguir la voz de Dios.

Pidiéndole a Dios abundantes bendiciones sobre cada uno de ustedes, sus familias y su importante Ministerio Catequético, y con mis mejores deseos, quedo de ustedes

Sinceramente en Cristo

Queridos/as Amigos/as:

Es un gran placer darles a ustedes nuevamente la bienvenida a otra celebración de renovación de la fe planeada por el Congreso 2006. Es igualmente un placer darles la bienvenida a ustedes que han compartido los regalos del congreso por muchos años, como también a quienes vienen a participar en el congreso por primera vez. Verdaderamente nos enriquece a presencia y participación de todos/as quienes se reúnen en este bendito fin de semana

Como muchos de ustedes recordarán, El Fondo Educativo de la Oficina de Educación Religiosa ha sido establecido por la Arquidiócesis de Los Ángeles para educación y formación continua de Directores de Educación Religiosa, Educación Religiosa para personas Adultas, Ministerio de Jóvenes y Jóvenes Adultos. Este fondo actualmente permite que 18 estudiantes puedan buscar su Maestría en Educación Religiosa. Sus ofrenda en las liturgias del Sábado por la noche durante el Congreso 2005 recaudaron $36,000. Al igual, agradecemos a todos aquellos que contribuyeron a este fondo por medio de sus inscripciones por la red.

El número y la variedad de las profundas y desafiantes sesiones de apertura, talleres y recursos ofrecidos a través de este fin de semana proveen de apoyo invaluable para la formación continua y enriquecimiento.

Las hermosas celebraciones litúrgicas y los momentos de entretenimiento, entrelazados con los rituales y las lenguas de las culturas y comunidades de la Arquidiócesis producen una experiencia sin igual. En medio de todas estas actividades que se ofrecen hay también momentos para la reflexión, oportunidad de caminar por el laberinto, y celebrar el Sacramento de la Reconciliación.

Nuevamente quiero agradecerles por su participación, liderazgo y compromiso para proclamar el poder de Dios, presencia liberadora en el mundo. Con anticipación espero darles la bienvenida a esta gran reunión anual.

Con afecto,

Hna. Edith Prendergast, RSC

SONG

Were I the Perfect Child

John Bell

arr. Tony Alonso, Michael Mahler, Gary Daigle

Were I the perfect child of God whose faith was deep and love was broad, not doubtful, guilty, worn or flawed, I'd gladly follow Jesus.

But I'm the child of what I've been, estranged by much I've done and seen, afraid to show the love I mean, unfit to follow Jesus.

Yet God, who knows me first and last, who's seen my best, my worst, my past, has shown his love, intense and vast by meeting me in Jesus.

For Christ, though killed at Calvary by sins like mine and folk like me,
 Has ris'n, forgiv'n and set me free, made fit to follow Jesus.

Then sprinkle water on my brow as, in this place, I make my vow to own and love my Savior now and give my self to Jesus.

God grant me what I still require, that I in others might inspire
 the hidden hope, the deep desire to love and follow Jesus.

God grant me what I still require, that I in others might inspire
 the hidden hope, the deep desire to love and follow Jesus, love and follow Jesus.

MISA DE LAS AMÉRICAS

Friday, March 31, 2006

Rev. Domingo Rodríguez, presider
Msgr. Ray East, homilist

The liturgy combines three languages: Spanish, English and Chumash. The Molmoloqbrash, the Ancient ones, now known as the “Chumash,” lived on the Channel Islands off the coast of Southern California. Today, their territory ranges from San Luis Obispo to Malibu, though stories speak of their land reaching south into the San Fernando Valley and beyond. They were and are a deeply spiritual people who believed in God, Kakunupmawa, The Mystery Behind the Sun. They have a profound connection to their homeland and to their Ancestors who are buried there. They are re-awakening their original language and reviving their ancient maritime culture with the building of their first tomol, a traditional plank canoe, Elye 'won, which was paddled to Limuw, Santa Cruz Island, on September 8, 2001.

FIRST READING/PRIMERA LECTURA

Wisdom 2:1a, 12-22

(Proclaimed in/Proclamado en Chumash)

The wicked said among themselves, thinking not aright:

“Let us beset the just one, because he is obnoxious to us; he sets himself against our doings, reproaches us for transgressions of the law and charges us with violations of our training. He professes to have knowledge of God and styles himself a child of the Lord. To us he is the censure of our thoughts; merely to see him is a hardship for us, because his life is not like that of others, and different are his ways. He judges us debased; he holds aloof from our paths as from things impure. He call blest the destiny of the just and boasts that God is his Father.

“Let us see whether his words be true; let us find out what will happen to him. For if the just one be the son of God, he will defend him and deliver him from the hand of his foes. With revilement and torture let us put him to the test that we may have proof of his gentleness and try his patience. Let us condemn him to a shameful death; for according to his won words, God will take care of him.”

These were their thoughts, but they erred; for their wickedness blinded them, and they knew not the hidden counsels of God; neither did they count on a recompense of holiness nor discern the innocent souls’ reward.

Los malvados reflexionando equivocadamente dicen:

“Pongamos trampas al justo, porque nos resulta insoportable y se opone a nuestra forma de actuar; nos echa en cara que no hemos cumplido la ley y nos reprocha las faltas contra la educación recibida; presume de conocer a Dios y se proclama a sí mismo hijo del Señor. Es un reproche contra nuestros pensamientos, y sólo verlo nos molesta. Pues lleva una vida distinta de los demás y va por caminos muy diferentes; nos considera moneda falsa, se aparta de nosotros como si fuéramos impuros; proclama dichosa la suerte de los justos y presume de tener a Dios por Padre.

“Veamos si es verdad lo que dice, comprobemos cómo le va al final. Porque si el justo es hijo de Dios, él lo asistirá y lo librará de las manos de sus adversarios. Probémoslo con ofensas y tortura: así veremos hasta dónde llega su paciencia y comprobaremos su resistencia. Condenémoslo a una muerte deshonrosa, pues, según dice, Dios lo librará.”

Así piensan, pero se equivocan, pues los ciega su maldad. Ignoran los secretos de Dios, no confían en el premio de la virtud, ni creen en la recompensa de los intachables.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM/SALMO RESPONSORIAL

Salmo 129: Clamo a Ti, Señor/Out of the Depths

Eleazar Cortés

Clamo a ti, Señor, desde lo más profundo. —
 Out of the depths I cry, calling to you, O Lord. —

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1. Escucha el sonido de mi voz, atiende a mi súplica, Señor. | 1. May your ears attend to my voice, listen to my cries for mercy. |
| 2. Señor, ¿quién con vida quedará si llevas cuenta de nuestros pecados? | 2. If you, O Lord, keep count of our sins, Lord, who could survive? |
| 3. Mi alma espera en el Señor más que el centinela a la aurora. | 3. My soul waits for the Lord more than sentinels for daybreak. |
| 4. En tu misericordia y gran bondad escoges al que alcanza salvación. | 4. For with the Lord is steadfast love, with the Lord is fullness of redemption. |

GOSPEL/EVANGELIO

John 7:1-2, 10, 25-30

(Proclaimed in Spanish/ Proclamado en español)

Jesus moved about within Galilee; he did not wish to travel in Judea, because the Jews were trying to kill him. But the Jewish feast of Tabernacles was near. But when his brothers had gone up to the feast, he himself also went up, not openly but as it were in secret. Some of the inhabitants of Jerusalem said, "Is he not the one they are trying to kill? And look, he is speaking openly and they say nothing to him. Could the authorities have realized that he is the Christ? But we know where he is from. When the Christ comes, no one will know where he is from." So Jesus cried out in the temple area as he was teaching and said, "You know me and also know where I am from. Yet I did not come on my own, but the one who sent, whom you do not know, is true. I know him, because I am from him, and he sent me." So they tried to arrest him, but no one laid a hand upon him, because his hour had not yet come.

I Want Jesus To Walk With Me

Traditional Spiritual

Adapted by ValLimar and Frank Jansen

REFRAIN 1, 2

I want Je - sus to walk with me.
In my tri - als, Lord, walk with me.

I want Je - sus to walk the road with
In my tri - als, Lord, walk the road with me. Oh, Lord. All a - long my,

me. When my heart is,

my hard life's jour - ney,
my heart is al - most break - ing,

Lord, I want my Je - sus
Lord, I want my Je - sus

to walk the road with me.
to walk the road with me.

Can you hear the hammer ringing, can you hear it?
Can you hear the hammer ringing, can you hear it?
Can you hear the hammer ringing?
Surely, he died on Calvary.

Whether innocence or guilt, it's not material.
The facts of life is that you see me, a criminal.
Statistical analysis says we are a nation of men and women needing rehabilitation from temptations.

PSALM PRAYER

REFLECTION

Let Jesus Rise

ValLimar and Frank Jansen

I would love to preach and the Lord be glorified.
 I would love to teach; see the opening of blind eyes.
 I would love to pray; see broken hearts at liberty to glorify Jesus in you and me.

I would love to give; see all the hungry fed.
 I would love to serve; see pain and misery dead.
 I would love to work; see the captives all go free
 to glorify Jesus in you and me.

REFRAIN

I would love to give much more than I receive,
 give strength and power to the hopeless and the weak.
 I'd give love for hate, give joy, tranquility
 to glorify Jesus in you and me.

Open our hearts and comfort those who weep.
 Work to protect the helpless and the meek.
 Justice for oppression, peace, security to glorify Jesus in you and me. (Refrain)

How Can I Repay

ValLimar & Frank Jansen

REFRAIN

Final: And how can I re - pay how he
And I can nev - er re - pay looked be - yond my trou - bled soul?
His touch has made me whole.

I know I can never repay
what Jesus Christ has done for me.
So I dedicate my life in every way,
to show I'm grateful for what he did on Calvary.

When I feed the hungry, clothe the poor,
comfort those who mourn,
the world knows I love him.
When I walk in love with those who hate, return righteousness for wrong
the world knows I love him. (Refrain)

PROCLAMATION

“Still I Rise” by Maya Angelou (Excerpt)

Just like moons and like suns,
With the certainty of tides,
Just like hopes springing high,
Still I'll rise.

You may shoot me with your words,
You may cut me with your eyes,
You may kill me with your hatefulness,
But still, like air, I'll rise.

Out of the huts of history's shame
I rise

Up from a past that's rooted in pain
I rise
I'm a black ocean, leaping and wide,
Welling and swelling I bear in the tide.
Leaving behind nights of terror and fear
I rise
Into a daybreak that's wondrously clear
I rise
Bringing the gifts that my ancestors gave,
I am the dream and the hope of the slave.
I rise
I rise
I rise.

ENDOWMENT FUND

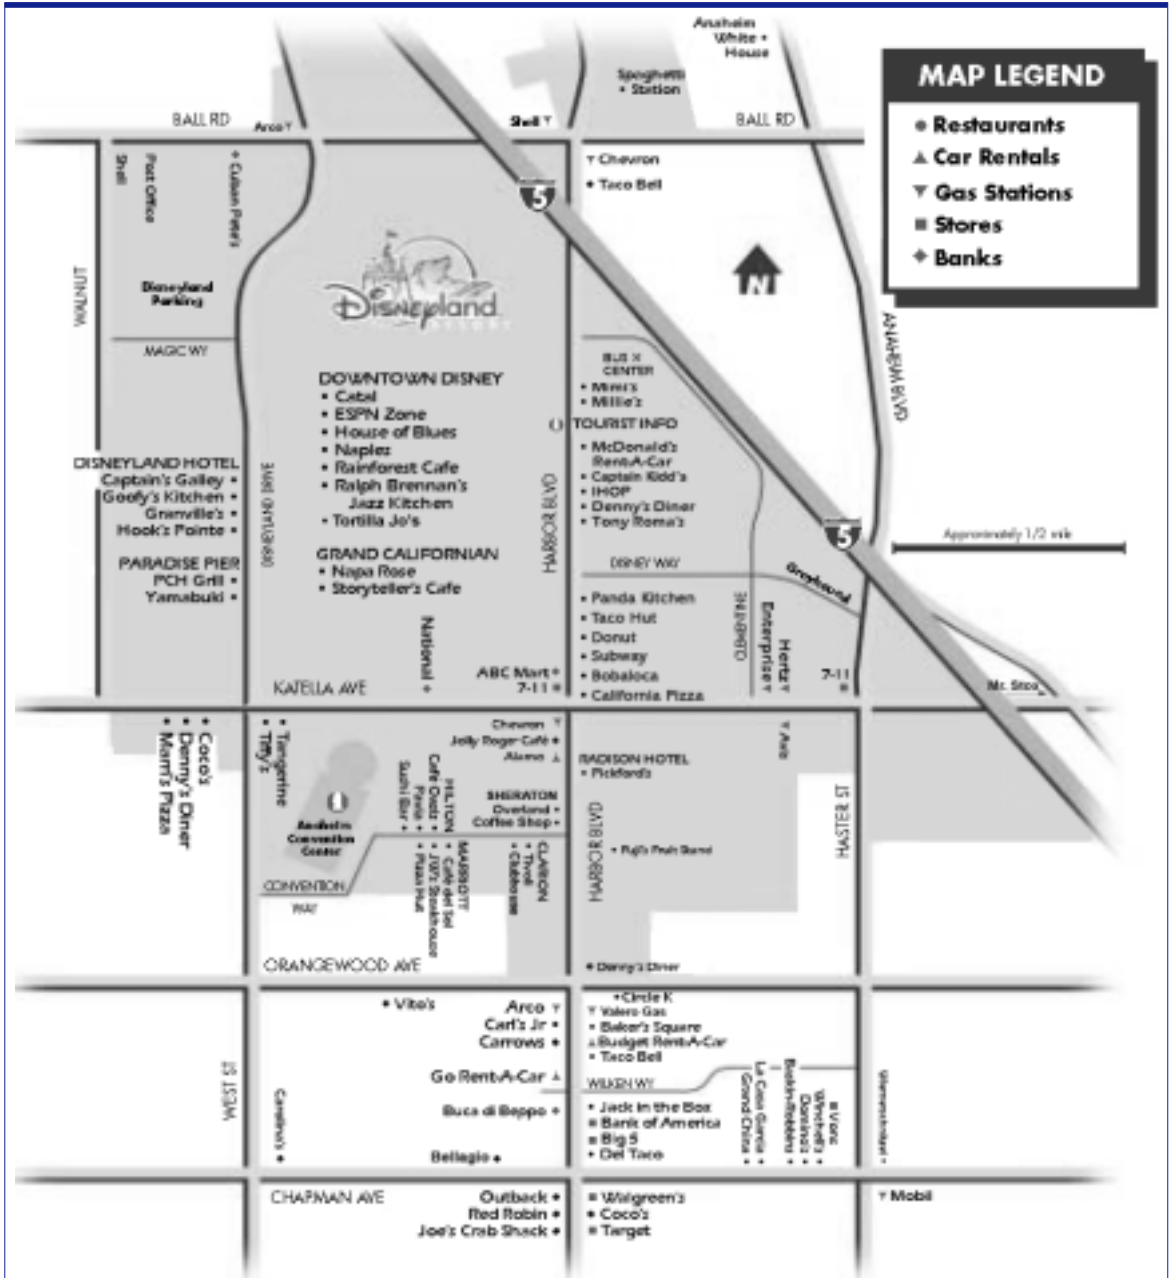

The Religious Education Endowment Fund was established by the Office of Religious Education to support the on-going training and formation of religious education leaders, particularly by making scholarships available for catechetical leaders to pursue graduate studies. It is our hope that every Director of Religious Education and Director of Youth Ministry will be given the opportunity to receive a master's degree in Religious Education/Religious Studies.

The Fund is currently enabling 18 students to pursue a master's degree in Religious Education. Your gift offering at the 2005 Congress Saturday night liturgies brought in $36,000. Additional contributions came through mail-in registrations and from the online registration option. As of February 27, 482 people responded with contributions totaling $7,435. We sincerely appreciate these contributions.
